

GOOD AFTERNOON! WHAT'S HAPPENING (April 27)!

Worship Services are at 4:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on Sundays, with Sunday School and Bible Classes for Youth, Young Adults and Adults from 9:15-10:15 a.m on Sundays.

The Regular Voter's Meeting for Ascension Lutheran Church was held on Sunday, April 23 in the Fellowship Hall. 53 members were in attendance for the meeting which was about 2 hours in length. Bob Hea, the Congregational Vice-President conducted the meeting in the absence of Tim McClaren, the President of the Congregation.

Margo Pasha reported that the congregation received $11,000 more than we spent during the first quarter of the year. The preschool received $2,000 more than its expenditures. The congregation has been able to place $260,000 into interest bearing Certificate of Deposits with the Lutheran Church-Extension Fund and with Chase. Through strong contributions into Project Peter (our Building Project debt), the remaining balance to eliminate the west-wing remodeling project is $15,000.

Pastor reported that the question of having one service on Sunday morning at 9:00 beginning in the fall has been discussed at the Elder's Meetings and the Church Council. A survey of the congregation will be conducted in the summer to receive thoughts from the congregation. The 4:00 service on Saturday will continue to be held at the same time.

The majority of the meeting was held for an explanation and discussion concerning the newly composed Constitution and By-Laws. Arvin Michel spoke about the changes and additions to the document. A special meeting for the congregation to offer amendments and to seek approval will be on Sunday, June 11 at 11:00 a.m.

Ushers needed! Are you looking for a way to become involved and help at Ascension? Please consider becoming an usher! The time commitment is minimal, but provides an excellent service to the church. Please contact Jim Wert, 720-300-2347, or any of the elders, or the church office at 303-794-4636 to be added to our usher list.

Great news! The Bethesda Auxiliary is back with their handmade items! We will be at Ascension on Sunday, May 7, 2023. The sale of these items continues to support the clients of Bethesda (now AbleLight) living with developmental disabilities. Please help support the Auxiliary and the work that they do by stopping by and shopping if you have need for any of our items. Please remember that we only accept cash or check. Thank you in advance for allowing us to share our ministry with you. We look forward to seeing you all again.

Items Needed for Orphanage at Mission Experience Haiti: From Pastor Mike Paulison: "Please help us collect toiletries for our orphanage this month - we are trying to collect as many as possible as it will allow staff to limit their trips to markets for safety reasons. Here is a list of what we are collecting if you all can help:

Ivory soap, toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant (no perfume), baby powder, shampoo (as natural as possible), towels, and washcloths.”

Please bring the items to the church office by Monday, May 22, and Pastor Mike will pick them up. Thank you in advance!

Prison Ministry Opportunity: This year our Faith Book included several stories about prisoners and prison ministry. I hope that these gave you a clearer picture of why we at Ascension have a Prison Ministry and how we are blessed and are blessing others. One way we support the incarcerated is through our annual Angel Tree drive in September. Another way is that we just donated 500 copies of the Gospel of John to the mens' Federal prison at the request of the Chaplain. Bob Estes and Dave Zeller also take the Prison Bible into the Douglas County jail as part of their ministries. At this point we have spent most of our 2023 budget on those booklets and Bibles. Please ask the Lord to guide you to donate to support Prison Ministry outreach. If you choose, you may write the check or cash to Ascension and place prison ministry/social ministry on the memo line. Thank you for your generosity. Please join us in prayer to lift up these men and women and their families. God works in all our hearts. Extended Day Preschool " After completing our PLANTS theme for April, we are transitioning into our last month of school (how is that possible). We are going to introduce transportation units each week, beginning with Air and Space. We are going to talk about forms of transportation used while in the air and space, and use this opportunity to discuss planets and other space items. We are going to incorporate a science activity using rockets blasted into space using a burst of air - how high do you think we will get them?"

-- Kelly Lafferty, Director, Ascension Lutheran Extended Day Preschool

The Lutheran Chorale presents its May concert, "Something Old, Something New, Something Tried, All Are True" on Sunday, May 7. The concert includes a wide range of music, from Bach to Handel to inspiring anthems, fun spirituals, and more. You won't want to miss it!

Can my estate plans change over time? The answer is yes! The family to whom you choose to share God's gifts in inheritance and the ministries you look to support with God's gifts are always evolving. It is best practice to look over your plan for gifting regularly, at least every five years, to see how your intent may have changed. Your Ascension Gift Planning Counselor can help. Contact Jason Jones at Jason.Jones@lfnd.org or call him directly at (970) 988-0305.

Church Library Corner:

From The Freedom of a Christian, by Martin Luther (continued from last week):

15. Since Christ has the primogeniture with all appropriate honor and worth, He shares it with all Christians who are His, that, through faith, all may be kings and priests with Christ, as St. Peter says in I Peter 2: "You are a priestly kingdom and a royal priesthood." The result is that a Christian is lifted up by faith so high above all things that he becomes the spiritual lord of all, for nothing can hinder his salvation. Rather, everything is subject to him, and helps him to reach salvation. Thus St. Paul teaches in Romans 8: "Everything must help to secure the good of the elect," whether life, death, sin, piety, good or evil, or whatever it may be. So also, I Corinthians 3: "All things are yours, whether life or death, present or future." It is not to be understood that we exercise material authority over all things, so that we possess or use them like ordinary men. Indeed as far as the body is concerned, we must die, for no one can avoid death. In the same way, we are necessarily subject to many other things, as we see exemplified also in Christ and His saints. For ours is a spiritual rulership, exercised even to the extent of repressing the body. Thus I can gain benefit in my soul quite apart from material things, and I can make even death and suffering of service to my salvation. That is surely a high and noble dignity, a proper and all-powerful lordship, a spiritual royalty. Nothing is so good or so evil but that it must serve me for good, if I have faith. Indeed, I need none of these things. My faith is sufficient for me. How precious then is the freedom and potency which Christians possess!
